

MAYOR JOSEPH CICERO, CITY OF LYNDHURST

MAYOR GEORGINE WELO, CITY OF SOUTH EUCLID

October 25, 2012

Dear South Euclid and Lyndhurst Residents,

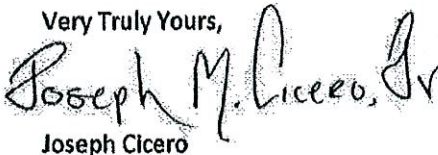

Our South Euclid-Lyndhurst City Schools will have an operating levy on the November 6 ballot – Issue 115. We are firmly convinced that this levy is ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL for our children, our property values, and the future of our communities – and we ask for your support by voting FOR the levy, Issue 115. Despite large funding cuts from the state of Ohio, strong leadership by the Board of Education extended the life of the last levy beyond what was anticipated. With a new Superintendent now in place, we believe the district is positioned for a strong and stable future.

The South Euclid-Lyndhurst City Schools remain a source of strength for our communities because of the exemplary work they are doing. Here is what some of our current students and Brush graduates have to say about their educational experience in our schools:

- Being a student-athlete and being active in student organizations has made me a more well-rounded individual while allowing me to grow in ways I never anticipated.
Ransford Bailey (class of 2013), Varsity Football and Track, Key Club (student chapter of Kiwanis International)
- I am a member of tennis, National Honor Society, Key Club, band, Robotics and Yearbook. Being a part of so many clubs has taught me things beyond what I have learned in the classroom and given me opportunities to try something new. Abbey Frey (class of 2013), National Honor Society President.
- Brush taught me how to be a leader in my community. I am a better citizen and a better person for having graduated from Brush. Fred Liu (class of 2001, Student Congress President) graduate Princeton (2005) and Yale Law (2008), Supreme Court clerk for Chief Justice Roberts, 2011-2012 term.

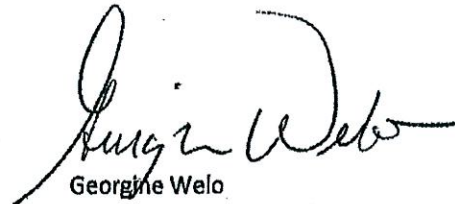

Excellent Schools equal Excellent Communities. Keep South Euclid and Lyndhurst vital and attractive places to live and raise families. Your vote FOR Issue 115 is a vote FOR our Schools, FOR our Community and FOR our Future.

Very Truly Yours,

Joseph Cicero

Mayor, City of Lyndhurst
